Outlook For Mac 2011 Trial Download

I bought Office for Mac 2011 a couple of years ago for my old MacBook. About a year and a half ago I got a MacBook Air and so to get Office on it, I downloaded the trial, and activated it with the product key from my disk. Talking to Office support, the first time you download the trial, the electronic signature of your Mac is registered on their server. So, as they said, I'll download the trial. Problem is, I can't for the life of me find the trial download? Can someone help me out here? I have a legit key, and it's proving so difficult to get the software on my Mac. It would have been on the download page as well in a confirmation email. If you received that email, you can use that PK to activate the trial. So I enter my key and get told I am not eligible for download. Fine - not sure why, but ok. Again, thank you I bought Office for Mac 2011 a couple of years ago for my old MacBook. So I enter my key and get told I am not eligible for download. Fine - not sure why, but ok. Now, when I go to the MS website (which is, by the way, awful, so many broken links) I am told that if you have no optical drive, like me, to either download and activate the trial (as I did in the past) or enter your product key and they will provide you with the relevant download link.

If that does not help, try calling Microsoft and see if they can get the trial up and running. Office Installation and Activation Support (800) 936-5700. Thanks. Download Microsoft Office for Mac 2011 14.4.9 Update from Official Microsoft Download Center. Now, when I go to the MS website (which is, by the way, awful, so many broken links) I am told that if you have no optical drive, like me, to either download and activate the trial (as I did in the past) or enter your product key and they will provide you with the relevant download link. It seems it is the reason why you can't reinstall without an activation key. I even tried to clean the Mac with the following Microsoft KB. About a year and a half ago I got a MacBook Air and so to get Office on it, I downloaded the trial, and activated it with the product key from my disk. All was well. Recently, my Office installation has been playing up (Math-type is impossible to remove) so I uninstalled it. Pirating would have been easier. 13.01.25 Thank you for getting back to me. Yes, I had installed a previous version of the trial before rebuilding my Mac to its default value for personal 'learning purposes'.
